refrigerator notes:

April 8 - spring potluck & general meeting, 6 p.m.

April 22 - Claiborne Clean-up - Inside & out, at the Hall and around town. 9 a.m.

Big thanks to Jess Murphy, our Arbor Fairy! Jess has donated & planted 3 new willow oak trees for our streetscape. Look to the right just after you pass the hall.

BUSY APRIL!

Look what's coming up this month:

This Saturday, April 8th, we will gather for the annual Spring Potluck & General Meeting of the Claiborne Association. A brief but exciting meeting comes first, when you will hear about progress on our Village Hall building projects. Bring a dish to share and your favorite beverage. 6:00.

Clean Up Claiborne Saturday - Earth Day - April 22 (rain date Sunday). We will do a big cleaning of the Hall, and as much yard and garden work as possible on the grounds. We will broaden our sights if we have lots of folks to help, and can make it a roadside pick-up day also. Bring garden tools, cleaning tools and supplies. We will have a list of chores, so get there early to claim your favorite job! Need some incentive? Coffee & donuts will be served at 9 a.m. and beautification will begin once the caffeine and sugar kick in.

BUSY MAY!

Two important things are coming in May:

Dumpster Week! (Didn't know that was a thing, did you?) Because all of us have some unweildy stuff that just needs to get out of our houses, sheds & yards, and because one dumpster is much more efficient than 37 separate trips to the dump, your Claiborne Association is happy to bring a dumpster to town. We'll also let you know as the time approaches whether we can offer some strong volunteers who could carry those heavy rusty things out of your shed. (Are you one of those volunteers? Let Martha or Suzanne or Pat know.)

Cinco de Mayo!

at the Hall as the time comes closer. Pinata, anyone?

We will have a holiday potluck with a twist. The program committee will provide the tacos & meat, and you, dear potluckers, will bring the toppings. Look for a sign-up sheet

BREAKNECK JULIUS CAESAR

Written & performed by Tim Mooney, captured in illustration by Renny Johnson

Our favorite thespian, Tim Mooney, visited the Hall in March, debuting his newest condensed version of Shakespeare's plays. We love it when he comes, and he's promising a return in the fall with his one-man Hamlet. Can't wait!
