It's Not Too Late to Pay Your Dues

If you missed the Claiborne picnic in August when we were collecting dues, you can still pay the $20 per member fee by dropping it in the donation box in the Hall or giving it to the Treasurer, Phil Sayre.

Gladly Wasting Time

A note from the Claiborne Association President

Any time of year is beautiful for a walk to the dock, but fall is especially wonderful with the leaves changing color, crisp air, and migrating shorebirds. Sitting at the dock looking over the Eastern Bay, I'm reminded of Otis Redding's classic "\(Sittin' On\) The Dock of the Bay":

,,,I'm sittin' on the dock
of the bay
Watching the tide roll
away
I'm just sittin' on the dock of the bay
Wastin' time...

I don't think of it as wasting time—but rather, time well spent. A moment to pause before diving back into the day's responsibilities.

Speaking of responsibilities, at its most recent meeting, the Board discussed plans for maintaining the gardens and grounds, acoustic improvements in the Hall, fundraising, and budget planning for next year. Last month's minutes were approved, and the Board accepted the Treasurer's report. The Board also heard from the Program Committee and the events planned for November.

The Board will continue to meet every third Thursday of the month at 7:00pm in the Hall. All are welcome.

Claiborne Wedding Bells

Congratulations to Abby West of Claiborne and Andrew Bauer as they "tied the knot" Sunday, October 12. The wedding and reception were held at the Tidewater Inn in Easton.

Anne North, Claiborne's Star Baker, made the wedding cake and a chocolate sheet cake. There's never enough cake! When asked about her future cake baking business, Anne's reply was not printable.

Soups, Style, and Stardust: A Diane Keaton Tribute Night

Claiborne Movie Goers continued their heartfelt tribute to recently departed film stars with a screening of Annie Hall, the 1977 classic that helped launch Diane Keaton's celebrated career.

Before the film rolled, movie goers enjoyed four delicious soups and a tempting array of desserts, each one as memorable as the movie itself.

To top it off, many arrived dressed in black and white, channeling Keaton's signature style that cemented her status as a fashion icon.
